DEDICATION

Some men are admired, some are respected, and some loved. Being all three — admired, respected, and loved — is singular achievement of Dr. Taylor McCoy Joyner, who retires this year as principal of South Gate High School. It is to this noble educator that the winter and summer classes of '59 dedicate this yearbook.

Born in Rensselaer, Indiana, in 1895, Dr. Joyner was reared and educated in Minnesota. In 1914 he began forty-five years of public service as an educator, as the principal of Rural Union School at Haug, Minnesota.

After fourteen years as a teacher and principal in Minnesota and Wisconsin and two years in the A. E. F. in France, Dr. Joyner came to California. His first job here was an instructor in a high school and junior college in Pomona, California. It was the next year, 1929, that he began his thirty-year career in the Los Angeles City School System, when he accepted a position as a shop instructor at Metropolitan High School.

After achieving a masters degree in education from the University of Southern California, he became boys' vice-principal at Hollenbeck Junior High where he served from 1934-38. From 1938-40 he was vice-principal at Lafayette Junior High, during which time he received a doctorate in education from USC.

In 1943, after three years as vice-principal at Hamilton High, Dr. Joyner was appointed principal of South Gate Senior High in which capacity he has administered for the past sixteen years.

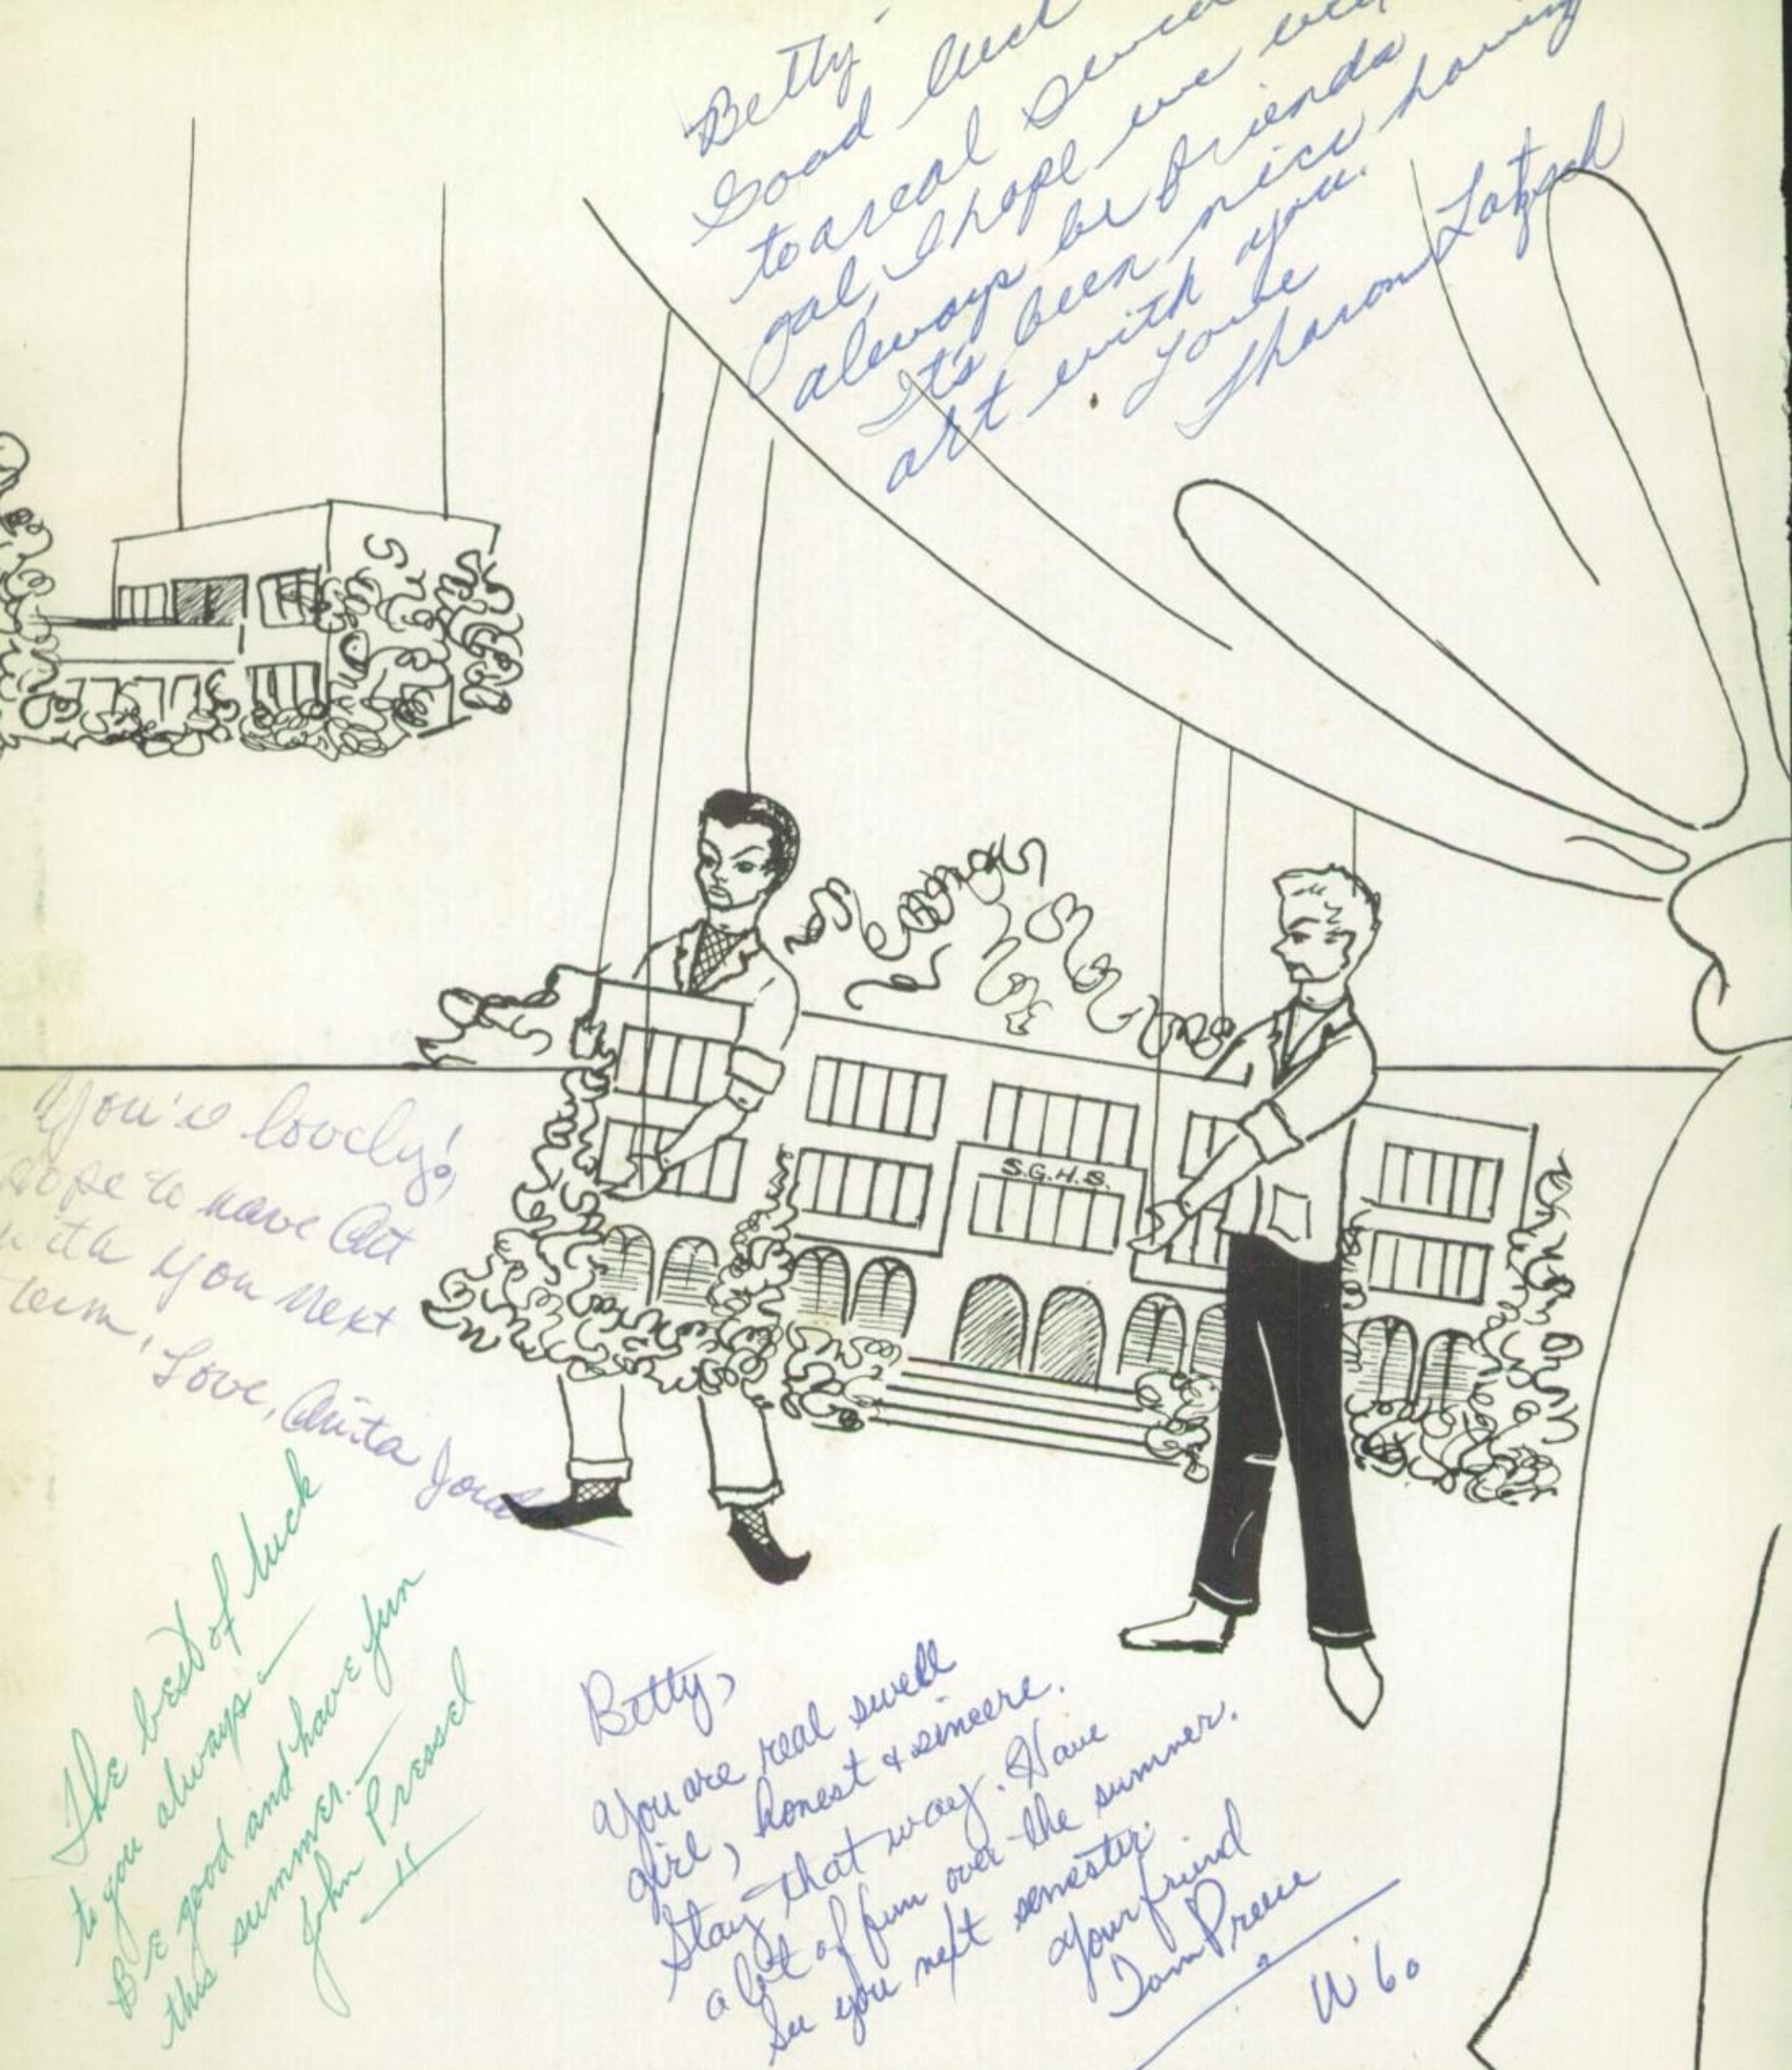
Throughout these active years at SGHS, the affirmative answer to one question became his guiding principle: Will it help us graduate better-trained and educated young men and women? Evidence of this principle can be seen behind his every thought and action. To achieve the true educator's ultimate goal — a better educated graduate — this man did everything in his power, and some things that weren't.

The nth degree in teamwork among administration, faculty, and student body was often required to achieve this goal. And it was in the securing and welding together of this teamwork that Dr. Joyner was a master. If joking were necessary to achieve this goal, Dr. Joyner would joke; if cajoling were necessary, he would cajole; and if sterner measures were required, he would initiate them.

Dr. Joyner's activities to make South Gate High a better school didn't stop at the school's boundaries. He recognized early the need for close community support and cooperation. In achieving this goal he led the way. His work as an original member of South Gate's Parks and Recreation committee and his long and active membership in this city's Kiwanis are known to many. Further proof of this close community-school cooperation is the continuing faculty-PTA rapport.

In short, Dr. Joyner was a leader. South Gate High's modern, well-equipped, multi-million dollar plant, its fine faculty, and its excellent student body attest to this leadership. It will be difficult, indeed, to fill the shoes of this man whose ready smile and firm handshake has become as much a part of South Gate High School as its very foundations.

(The above dedication went to press before SGHS's Faculty unanimously urged and persuaded Dr. Joyner to remain another year.)



Betty,
Good luck
to a real swell
gal. Hope we will always be friends
It's been nice having art with you.
Love
Sharon Lafferd

If you're lucky hope to have Art with you next term. Love, Anita Jones

The best of luck to you always —
Be good and have fun
this summer.

CLASS HISTORY
WINTER '59

A new "giant" loomed before us in February, 1956. Confronted by unfamiliar surroundings, everything seemed a little larger than it actually was. We were eager to make new friends and establish ourselves as part of the South Gate High School family. Ron Fountain, who was our A-9 Class President, started us off right by serving as the B-10 Grade Delegate to the Executive Council.

The Howdy Hop, with Bill Child, Claudia Brack, and Carol Gold reigning as king and co-queens, started the ball rolling, socially speaking, for the Winter Class of 1959.

Mr. Cecil Bianchi, our grade counselor, helped us through program planning and an exciting new game—"running for classes!" Joyce Hill led us in student government as A-10 Grade Delegate as our sophomore year drew to a close.

"A Night in Paris" was the motif of the Junior Prom, which marked the halfway point in our high school career. Ray Kulper brought honor to the class by being selected to participate in Boys' State. Representing us in Executive Council were Pam McClain and Dale Miller. Then, class organization with the assistance of Miss Cynthia Domingo, who accepted the arduous task of being our class sponsor, commenced before most of us realized that the senior year was "just around the corner". We chose charcoal grey and powder blue as our class colors. An unusual and attractive class emblem was designed by Donna Conrad.

Our senior year was initiated under the leadership of Dale Miller, president. His cabinet consisted of Sue Bowen, vice-president; Lorraine Clark, secretary; Elaine Denton, girls' treasurer; and Joe Farruggia, boys' treasurer. Jan Noack was our B-12 Grade Delegate.

At Irvine Park, fun was had by all who attended the first senior picnic. Other exciting activities were noon basketball and volleyball games, and Senior Play Day held with the Senior Ayes.

Busy in student body government were Bill Child, Boys' Federation President; Linda Rundle, Chief Justice; Marvin Cichy, Commissioner of Athletics, and Willy Capps, Head Cheerleader. In spring sports, three Senior Bees achieved All-City honors. They were Marvin Cichy, tennis; Lloyd Helm, gymnastics; and Richard Yeates, baseball.

The night of June 7, 1958 will be remembered by all as that of the long-awaited Senior Prom. The theme was 'Grecian Gardens', and we danced to the music of the Elliot Brothers. Picturesque decorations portraying the atmosphere of ancient Greece added to the success of the evening at the Civic Auditorium.

During the summer of 1958, Dale Miller, as a guest of the American Field Service, spent two months in Switzerland as a foreign exchange student.

At last, September, 1958—we were on top! Our new Senior Aye class officers were Marvin Cichy, president; Sharon Pahel, vice-president; Carol Gold, secretary; Lorraine Clark, girls' treasurer; Joe Farruggia, re-elected boys' treasurer, and Lloyd Helm, sergeant-at-arms.

Activities commenced swiftly with the first fall senior class picnic, also held at Irvine Park. It was a riot! Senior pictures were taken and exchanged. Everyone enjoyed himself at a truly successful Senior Tea on December 4. Our talent show was presented to the school on January 15. Our Class gift, four large volumes on George Washington to the high school library, was dedicated at the Senior Breakfast on January 22. The class prophecies were also read on this occasion.

Bill Child made All-League during the 1958 football season. Beauty and personality were displayed by Sharon Pahel, Milk Bowl Queen; Lanette Clark, Homecoming Queen; and Claudia Brack, Miss South Gate. These Senior Ayes received special recognition at the Award Assembly on January 26: Dennis Benko and Marcia McKinney, our Rotary Award winners; Dale Miller and Linda Thurston, B'nai B'rith winners; Dennis Benko, Alumni scholarship; Linda Thurston, Retired Teachers scholarship; Ron Schwarting, Bausch Lomb Scientific award; the 20-30 Award was given to Harold Lara; Jim Dods received an Art Award. John Kinikin was honored for perfect attendance.

Top honors at graduation went to Valedictorian, Miriam Tenn; Ephebians, Carol Ann Blake, Bill Child, John Kinikin, and Dale Miller; and our C.S.F. Sealbearers. "The Youth of Today Is the Hope of Tomorrow", the main theme of graduation, was delivered by speakers Astrid Heinrich, Dale Miller, Kay Carswell, and Linda Rundle.

Climaxing our senior activities, the Grad-Nite Party was held at the Civic Auditorium under the theme, "Hawaiian Luau." Roller skating and other activities provided a wonderful time for all of us.

School service was the impetus of the members of the Winter class of 1959 who distinguished themselves in their careers at South Gate: Bill Child, A.S.B. President; John Kinikin, A.S.B. Vice-President; Dennis Benko, Chief Justice; Marcia McKinney, Coordinator of Student Conduct; Linda Rundle, A.S.B. Historian; Dale Miller, Eastern League President; Jan Noack, Eastern League Secretary; Linda Thurston, Girls' League President; Sharon Ross, Ladies' President; Mike Ireland, Knights' President; Carol Ann Blake, Pep Club President; Sue Bowen, President of Modernettes, and Sue Bergman, RAMBLE-BACK editor.

We have enjoyed our stay at South Gate High School and are somewhat reluctant to leave. However, we realize that commencement is actually as the word implies—the beginning of many interesting careers for each of us.

SENIOR HISTORY

In September, 1959, a vibrant new class came to South Gate High School. This was the Summer Graduation Class of 1959 consisting of more than 400 members. After being such well known "A-9's," we were quite lost in this big wonderful school. We were shy and timid at first, but it didn't take us long to take part in the many activities. Weldon Mathews and Pat Kimball began the Sophomore year, reigning as King and Queen of the traditional Howdy Hop. As an introduction to the school and the things we were to expect, there was an orientation assembly for the boys and, of course, the Big-sister Party for the girls. Grade delegates for the B-10 were Burt Swart and Carol Christianson; in the A-10 they were Betty Rumsby and Don Grussing.

Our Junior year brought about much enthusiasm for A. S. B. officers. Don Battershall and Carolyn Holden were representatives. Among the Student Body Officers were Earline Ulrich, Commissioner of Publicity; Mary Hauser, Girls League Historian. Of course, by now people had joined many of the clubs around the campus. The Junior Prom was held under the theme of "Sayonara."

The field of sports, all kinds, began to be active in our Junior year. Some of the boys who became quite well known for their contributions to sports were: Doug Bates, Vann Singleton, Jim Keller, Gene Shelton, George Miller, Danny Woodward, Dennis McDonald, Jim Lovato, Larry Giar, Burt Swart, Ken Weiland, Don Morris, Brad Van Horn, Wally Wolf, Bob Reeves, and Bill Mathews.

Choosing Senior Colors was quite a task, but after much deliberation, we decided on Green and White. We finally began to feel the excitement of the Senior Year commencing. Soon class rings, pins, and sweaters were arriving. We were very proud to wear all of these insignias of the Summer Graduation Class of 1959.

Our Senior Bee year was the beginning of a lot of hard work, and at the same time, much pleasure. A beach party, picnic, and noon activities such as volleyball games and tug-o-wars, began to show our rivalry for the Senior Ayes. Class Officers for Senior Bee year were Frank Cassidy, President; Don Battershall, Vice President; Marianne Mandeville, Secretary; Mary Grosso, Girls' Treasurer; and Dave Hill, Boys' Treasurer. Those who took part in A. S. B. Officers were Mary Hauser, Secretary; Barbara Elias, Commissioner of Publicity; Eurlene Ulrich, Commissioner of Assemblies; Phil Francis, Commissioner of Finance; and Gene Shelton, Boys' Federation President. Cheerleaders were Pat Kimball, Pat Bogan, Carol Holden, and Betty Rumsby, and Jim Baker. Songleaders were Sunnie Stevenson and Martha Rowe.

February brought about a change of heart in all Senior Bees. This was of course, being promoted to Senior Ayes. Officers elected were Nan McCoid, President; Jim Loavto, Vice President; Pat Kimball, Secretary; Treasurers, Pat Bogan, Don Battershaw, and Linda Reed, Historian. Among Senior activities were the tug-O-wars, clash day, volleyball games, beach party, talent show, picnics, hay rides, play day, safety car check, and others. Many of these activities were held in conjunction with the Senior Ayes. Those who distinguished themselves by holding offices were Gene Shelton, President; Dennis McDonald, Vice President; Marianne Mandeville, Secretary; Bob Macali, Chief Justice; Linda Jones, co-ordinator of student conduct; Betty Rumsby, commissioner of assemblies; Barbara Elias, Commissioner of Publicity; Bob Reeves, Commissioner of Finance; Judy Parr, Historian; Lee Ann Johnson, Head Cheerleader; Mary Hauser, Girls' League President; Wally Wolf, Rambler Editor; Carol Holden, Girls' League Secretary; Martha Rowe, Girls' League Historian; Carol Everett and Terry Wilkes Grade representatives.

For the first time at South Gate High there were Princesses and a Queen reigning over our first night track meet of the season. Pat Kimball and Linda Reed were elected Senior Princesses while Martha Rowe was elected Queen.

SPORTS REVIEW

South Gate High School sports blasted off in championship fashion in October, when Ram footballers blasted supposed powerhouse Van Nuys 22-14, but from there victories were few and far between on the gridiron. Basketball provided some spine-tingling moments, finishing second in the Eastern League race, and advancing to the city quarter-finals.

In the spring, baseball fever caught on, and the South Gate horsehiders responded with a 3-1 pre-season record and a 3-0 Eastern League record as we go to press. Coach Barkham Garner in his 29th year at the helm of the track squad, had a 3-3 overall record, and the SG strongmen were the dark horses in the city's most powerful gymnastic loop.

Looking back on the school sports calendar as they came, it was Coach Joe Seminario's first losing season in eight years at South Gate, winding up the campaign in fourth place with a 2-3 League mark and a 3-5 season record.

While not a happy gridiron year, the naming of Doug Bates to the 3rd team all-city tackle position, Bill Child's Eastern League nomination, and Vann Singleton's 2nd team all league award soothed some of the pain. Bates, a 223 pound mountain and Child's a 165 pound guard co-captained the '58 aggregation, while to "scat-back" Singleton it was old business to be named on league teams.

Offensively speaking, Singleton copped the team rushing title for the second straight year, gaining 465 yards for a better than 4.5 yards per carry, and T-master Ed Maldanado lead the squad in total offense with his deadly aerials. Giving solace to Seminario and Coach Bob Clark were the performances of juniors Larry Sandel, John Daniels, Ron Ogle, Ron Smith, Jim Ortiz, Joe Monti, and Jim Neighbors.

Biggest thrill of the pigskin year didn't occur till the finale against Bell. Trailing 7-6 with only 17 seconds remaining on the clock and the year, Maldanado unloaded a 29 yard pass which Singleton hauled in for victory 12-7.

Wilson and Huntington Park dominated the league with the Spartans ending up on top. The Mules Mitch Dimkich was named Eastern League player of the year, while HP's Larry Campbell set a new city single game rushing mark against South Gate.

Coach Ditto and Bob Schnyder fielded the top 'B' team in the past five years, but could garner only a fourth place in league competition. Jim Travis, Dan Harrison, Mike Hinnen, Lorah, and Travis received league awards for their efforts.

The round ball sport, basketball, came up with some of the most exciting moments of the year. The Rams dropped the final game of the Eastern League season to Bell, to finish second. Mike Ireland, George Miller, Marvin Cichy, and Rich Yeates were the big guns for Coach Garvin Barnes.

Overall, SG posted an 11-5 record, good enough to reach the city quarter finals and the league runner-up position. Ireland, Miller, and Cichy each received all-league consideration, Ireland to the first team and the latter pair to second team positions. For Cichy, it marked the third time in his high school career that he was named to an all-league basketball team.

One stumbling block which popped up twice stopped South Gate from taking the crown. Roosevelt twice overthrew the Rams, taking both tilts by three points.

Ireland stole the season spotlight in the opening round of the city playoffs at Venice. With four ticks left, he cast off from 35 feet and hit to bring SG a 47-45 victory over Narbonne. University defeated SG in the quarter-finals, but not before, major underdogs South Gate, had given them a third quarter scare.

JV hoopmen faired the same way as the varsity, dropping the season finale to Bell, thus losing the championship. Dwayne George, John Parrot, Dwayne Vendes, and Joe Quintana sparkled for Coach Don Guynn.

Called a "team of destiny" the JV five won seven out of eight games by one or two points, and in each instance, the winning basket was held back till the final three or four seconds.

Tenth grader Nelson Brown was the whole cross-country story, leading the leatherlungers to fourth place in the standings behind Roosevelt, Garfield, and Wilson. Howard Ash, Dennis McDonald, Dan Woodard, and Dennis Rietzel composed the nucleus of the varsity team.

Defending Eastern League champs and a 3rd place Dorsey Tournament finish to live up too, South Gate's varsity baseballers, launched a successful practice season, defeating Jordan, Franklin, and Belmont, losing only to Pius X 2-0. Favored to take two in a row, Coach Cliff Ditto's contingent scored successive wins over Wilson, Roosevelt and Huntington Park in the league openers.

Frank Den Hartog posted a 4-0 record thus far. The ace of the staff with Brad Van Horn on the sidelines, Hartog came through with top notch performances. A 2nd team all-city member, Van Horn was hors de combat for the first part of the year due to shoulder ailments, but his big bat was felt by the opposition.

Larry Sandel, Wally Wolf, and Doug Bates were booming the ball at a better than .300 pace as the season progresses with all three up for league honors. Huntington Park was the surprise nine, and Garfield the big contender.

Just a mediocre year on the varsity level, the 'C' team was the best South Gate has ever produced. Running in the middle of the pack, the varsity squad had a quartet of top notch performers in Dennis McDonald, Bill Matthews, Dan Woodard, and LeRoy Hopper.

Matthews tied the school 180 yard low hurdles mark twice, while McDonald was only two seconds off the school mile standard with three meets to come. Woodard and Hopper loom up as possible Eastern League medal contenders, being solid performers all through the season.

'C' prospects were bright for the first time in years with sprinters Preston Dollar and Ron Govreau breaking records, Bill Sheue standing out in the 660 and George Guccione breaking the school 120 low hurdle mark.

School records fell like flies in the 'C' division. For example, Ron Govreau cracked the 180 mark on three occasions, driving it down to 18.7, which is better than the existing Eastern League record and one of the tops in the city; George Guccione tied the school 120 lows record in his second attempt at the sticks; Dollar's 10.5 100 best is one of the top marks in the city; Dollar and Govreau team together in the field events, Dollar the shot put and Govreau the broad jump.

The admission of Wilson into the league gives the Eastern loop the tops circuit in city circles. Perennial toughies Roosevelt, Garfield, and Huntington Park along with Wilson made it tough.

Bob Reeves, third in the city free-ex in '58, looks like city material again. Gene Shelton, rings, Larry Gaier, rope, and Jim Lovato, long horse, lead the gym enthusiasts as the season began.

The South Gate 'B' football team improved 200% from 1957. Campaign posting a 2-3 Eastern League record, good for a Fourth place slot, and a 2-6 seasonal mark.

Highlight of the season, was the naming of four members of the '58 squad to the all-Eastern League team. Honored by the Eastern loop coaches were Dennis Evenson, center; Jim Travis, quarterback; Fred Lorah, halfback; and Fred Hinnen, tackle.

Evenson drew the top honor of the quartet, nailing down a first team center berth with his aggressive play. Evenson is labeled for plenty of varsity action in the Seminario system in '59.

Quarterback Travis, Lorah, and Hinnen all were selected to the second all-Eastern League team.

Lorah was the leading rusher for Coach Cliff Ditto's eleven, while Travis handled the signal calling chores. Hinnen was a block of granite in the line.

The Rams had one of the top backfield units in the league, featuring Gene LoCicero, Dan Harrison, Lorah, and Travis. With their combined efforts, this unit rushed and passed for over 1000 yards against the opposition.

Only record breaking performances came in the second non-conference game of the season when the SG backs ran up 246 yards on the ground for an individual game rushing mark. South Gate dropped the game in a thrilling finish 20-18, when a Narbonne back broke loose for a 60 yard TD run with two minutes left on the clock.

Coach Cliff Ditto's varsity baseball team is in the thick of the Eastern League race, running in the number two spot with four games remaining. Frank Den Hartog has turned in a perfect 5-0 record this spring, and has yet to give up an earned run in league competition. Juniors Jack Robertson and Grant Trumbo lead the hitting parade with Wally Wolf, Larry Sandel, and Ken Wieland hot on their heels. Rams have dumped Wilson twice, Huntington Park 2-1 in a nine inning thriller, Garfield 3-0, and Bell 4-2 bringing the season up to date.
